Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Salford

Reports of the Directors and the Trustees for the year ended 31 March 2020

Governing documents

The Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Salford is a company limited by guarantee governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. It is also a charity registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales.

Appointment of trustees

The trustees consist of nine persons chosen from among the Baha'is of Salford who have attained the age of 21 and who are elected by such Baha'is who are resident of Salford in a manner provided by the Articles of Association, and who shall remain Members (trustees) and continue in office for a period of one year, or until their successors are elected and on failure to be re-elected to the Spiritual Assembly shall cease to be member.

Risk Statement

The directors (trustees) have examined the major operational risks which charitable companies face and confirm that the system has been established so that the necessary steps can be taken to reduce these risks.

Objective and Activities

The objectives of the charity are:

- . Sharing the ideals and assisting the efforts of Baha'is to establish, uphold and promote the spiritual, educational and humanitarian teaching of human brotherhood, radiant faith, exalted character and selfless love revealed in the lives and utterances of all the Prophets and Messengers of God, Founders of the world's revealed religions, and given renewed creative energy and universal application to the conditions of this age in the life and utterances of Baha'u'llah.
- . To administer the affairs of the members of the Baha'i Faith in Salford according to the principles of the Baha'i affiliation and administration created and established by Baha'u'llah.

The charity is dependent upon voluntary help. The entire work of the charity in Salford is carried out by volunteers. It is not possible to either estimate the hours or put a valuation on the time given to the work by the volunteers.

Public Benefits

The trustees are satisfied that the charity is for public benefit. Its primary objective is the advancement of religion and its activities such as its study circles, devotional meetings, children's classes and junior youth activities which are open to all.

Achievement and performance

The particular focus of Salford Baha'i community's work at this stage of its development is on four Core Activities: study circles, devotional gatherings, classes for the spiritual education of children, and junior youth. All these activities are open to the wider community. In addition, the Baha'i community pursues a range of activities, designed to promote processes towards world peace.

Financial Review

Incoming resources in the year ended 31 March 2020 totalled £288 (2019: £358). Resources expended in the same period totalled £360 (2019: £460). At 31 March 2020, the charity had total funds of £1,260 of which all were unrestricted.

Reserve policy

It is the policy of the charity to maintain its funds at such a level as to enable the charity to fulfil its commitments

Directors responsibilities in respect of the accounts

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year, in accordance with the requirements of section 386 of The Companies Act 2006. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- a) select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- b) make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- c) follow applicable accounting standard, subject to any material departures being disclosed and explained in the financial statement.
- d) prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in operation.
- e) safeguard the assets of the company and hence take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities;

The directors have confirmed that no notice has been deposited under Section 476 of the companies Act 2006.

In preparing this report, the directors have taken advantage of the audit exemption conferred by Section 477 (2) of Companies Act 2006 and in the opinion of the directors; the company is entitled to those exemptions on the basis that it qualified as a small company.

Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Salford

Company Status

The charity is a company limited by guarantee. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member. If the winding up occurs within one year of member ceasing to be a member then the above applies to debt and liabilities of the company contracted before he or she ceased to be a member.

Accounting Policies

Accounting convention

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention on a going concern and include the results of the charity's operation as indicated in the financial report, all of which are continuing.

Basis of accounting

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the applicable accounting standards, the Statement of Recommended Practice-"Accounting and Reporting by Charities" (SORP 2005) and complies with Companies Act 2006.

The principal source of income

In accordance with the teaching of the Baha'i Faith, only Baha'is may contribute to the Baha'i Fund. Thus the primary source of income is from the Baha'i community of Salford.

Incoming Resources

All incoming sources accounted for when the charity is legally entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy.

Outgoing resources

Expenditure is accounted for on an accrual basis and is allocated to the appropriate heading in the financial statement. Where applicable, resources expended include VAT which cannot be recovered.

Cash flow statement

The company has taken advantage of the exemption conferred by the Financial Reporting Standard No 1 from the requirement to produce a cash flow statement on the grounds that it qualifies as a small company.
