Charitable objects

The objects of the Charity are, for the public benefit, to rescue, board and place in good homes stray or unwanted reptiles and to continue to care for and protect reptiles in need.

Organisational structure

The Reptile Rescue Centre Limited is run by the directors who are the trustees of the charity and are responsible for setting the strategic direction of the organisation and for establishing policy.

When planning the activities for the year, the trustees have considered the commission's guidance on public benefit and in particular the trustees have considered how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set.

Review of activities and achievements

No fundraising activities were undertaken in the year and income came from donations.

Following charitable registration the centre has provided care for a number of stray reptiles, some of which have been successfully re-homed. A charge is made to those wishing to re-home the reptiles.

Reserves

It is an ongoing policy of the charity to generate unrestricted funds, which will provide reserves for future activities which fall within the charitable objectives.

Investment powers, policy and performance

The charity's powers of investment are governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. The trustees have considered the most appropriate policy for investing funds and have found that a building society or bank deposit account meets their requirements.

Governance and internal control

Risk management

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finance of the trust, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate their exposure to major risks.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

Company and charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees have overall responsibility for ensuring that the charity has appropriate system of controls, financial and otherwise. They are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Accountants

The trustees recommend that Wyatt, Morris, Golland Ltd remain in office until further notice.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

This report was approved by the trustees on 27 May 2016 and signed on its behalf by
