6	Guidance
·	This guidance is on preparing dormant company accounts for a company limited by shares where its only transaction is the issue of subscriber shares and the company is not a subsidiary: for financial years beginning on or after 6th April 2008.	Please Note: The total of Net Assets should equal the total of Shareholders' Funds.  - The DCA is only suitable for dormant companies where the company's

The attached template for dormant company accounts is only suitable for those companies limited by shares which have never traded and where the only transaction entered into the accounting records of the company is the issue of subscriber shares.	only transaction is one mentioned in 'a' above and the company is not a subsidiary.  - Do not use the DCA if your company is a charity or is limited by guarantee or has no shares.  - Do not use the DCA if preparing accounts in accordance with
	b. Shares may be fully paid, partly paid or unpaid: Any paid element should be shown as "Cash at Bank and in hand", Any unpaid element shown as "Called up share capital not paid".
	c. Dormant companies acting as an agent for any person must state that they have so acted in Section 3.	International Accounting Standards (IAS).
	d. A fee or penalty raised on the company for the payment of an annual return fee, change of name fee, reregistration fee, or late filing penalty may be omitted from the company records and this DCA—if the payment was made by a third party without any right of reimbursement.
	e. The company directors are responsible for preparing and filing accounts at Companies House that comply with the requirements of the Companies Act and failure to do so may result in prosecution. Should you have any doubt about the company's entitlement to file dormant accounts, or the preparation of those accounts, you should seek professional advice.	·
	f. This guidance only advises on the preparation of abbreviated dormant accounts which can be filed at Companies House. It does not advise on the preparation of full accounts for the members.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT
In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.
The company has been providing free hot meals, clothing's and other essentials to homeless, socially isolated vulnerable and those in need in Walsall and surroundings. It also has been providing free advice on Welfare Rights, access to education and health and social care. The company also has been raising awareness about homelessness and create volunteering opportunities for people from across communities which in turn has improved community relations. Working in partnership with the local authority and other partner organisations have successfully enabled some individuals resettling back to the mainstream community.
(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)  PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.
The company's main users are homeless and people from disadvantaged communities. Our stakeholders are regularly consulted during the weekly session as well as over telephone. Following on advice received from our stake holders we have changed the location of our weekly food delivery session.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
